There are currently 196 Political Parties in 51 countries and 1 territory (Palestinian National Authority), which meet the following criteria to be eligible to participate in the ICAPP activities.

- Article 2 of the ICAPP Charter stipulates that "The ICAPP shall be open to political parties in Asia with democratically elected members in the parliaments of their respective countries, which are Member States of the United Nations.

- The members of Standing Committee agreed to extend invitations to political parties in the Palestinian National Authority in an effort to render the ICAPP activities more inclusive and representative of the diversities existing in the region, at the 5th SC Meeting held in Seoul during June 1-3, 2006.

- In consideration of the need to make the ICAPP more inclusive, it was further agreed at the 8th SC Meeting held in Tehran during November 22-23, 2007 that the following two criteria would be applied to the political parties in Asia to be eligible for invitation to the future ICAPP activities, including the General Assemblies; (1) Political parties which have more than one percent of elected seats in their national parliaments; or (2) Political parties which have won more than one percent of popular votes in their latest national parliamentary elections, as certified and recognized by their national election commissions.

There are no political parties which meet the above criteria to be eligible to participate in the ICAPP activities in the following 10 countries in the region:

- Brunei, Marshall Island, Micronesia, Nauru, Oman, Palau, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Tuvalu and the United Arab Emirates.
- There are several different political cases in these countires, such as (1) political parties exist, but no national elections are held; (2) no political parties exist, though they are not banned; (3) national elections are held, but no political parties exist; (4) countries are developing into a constitutional monarchy, but political parties are not yet allowed; or (5) activities of political parties are disbanded for domestic political situation.

In view of respective political situation in some countries, the Standing Committee is recommended to review the list and take decisions not to invite certain political parties on the list.
