Tselmuun Manlaijav (short bio)

Tselmuun Manlaijav is the Head of Department of International Relations of the Mongolian People's Party. He has held foreign relations positions at the Ministry of Construction and Urban Development of Mongolia as well as the Ministry of Foreign Affairs as attaché. Prior to commencing his current position, Tselmuun was advisor to Member of Parliament Tsogtbaatar Damdin. He started OIO Enterprises, a consulting and project management company in 2018 and has successfully launched 8 youth startups to date.

Tselmuun earned his Bachelors of Science at Tsinghua University in Beijing, having undergone rigorous training in Chinese at Tianjin University prior to the start of his undergraduate studies. Tselmuun is fluent in English, Chinese, and Russian and has working knowledge of Japanese.